ASSIGNMENT AND RELEASE

I hereby authorize any insurance benefits to be paid directly to the Physician. I hereby authorize the release of all information necessary to secure payment of benefits. I understand that I am financially responsible for all charges incurred whether or not paid by an insurance company. Interest of 1½% per month (18% annually) may be charged to overdue accounts. Any collection costs (including attorney's fees) will be charged to delinquent accounts and may be reported to credit rating agencies. I realize that insurance assignment (when applicable) is a courtesy extended by Advanced Orthopedics and that I am ultimately responsible for payment of all services rendered. This agreement will remain in effect until revoked by me in writing. A photo copy of this agreement is to be considered as valid as an original.

NOTICE OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI) POLICY (Effective April 1, 2003)

The privacy of your medical information is important to us. The following information is provided to formally advise you of our PHI policy as per present federal regulations. Your PHI will be used for the purpose of treatment, payment and healthcare operations (TPO). Your signature below acknowledges that we may need to provide your PHI for purposes of treatment, payment and healthcare operations (TPO) on a regular basis. Deborah Lynch is in charge of privacy matters at our office. You can contact her if you have any questions regarding our privacy policy.

Use and disclosure of protected information:

Federal law provides that we may use your medical information (protected health information) for treatment of you, without further notice to you, or written authorization by you. For example, we may disclose your PHI to a pharmacy when we order a prescription for you, or if we refer you to a specialist, we may provide laboratory or test data to the specialist (subject to more stringent New York laws, such as restriction on disclosure of information concerning HIV/AIDS). Employees in our practice may use or disclose your PHI in order to treat you or to assist others in your treatment. Additionally, we may disclose your PHI to others who may assist in your care, such as your spouse, children or parents. We may also disclose your PHI to other health care providers for purposes related to your treatment.

Federal law provides that we may use your medical information to obtain payment for our services without further specific notice to you, or written authorization by you. Our practice may use and disclose your PHI in order to bill and collect payment for the services and items you may receive from us. For example, we may contact your health insurer to certify that you are eligible for benefits and we may provide your insurer with details regarding your treatment in order to obtain payment. We may also use and disclose your PHI to obtain payment from third parties that may be responsible for such costs, such as family members. We may also use your PHI to bill you directly for services rendered and in cases of non-payment to a collection agency. We may disclose your PHI to other health care providers and entities to assist in their billing and collection efforts.

Federal law provides that we may use your medical information for health care operations without further specific notice to you, or written authorization by you. For example, our accountants may see names, dates of treatments and procedure codes during audits of our books or we may use your information for risk reduction and claim management purposes with our medical professional liability insurer.

We may use or disclose your medical information, without further notice to you, or specific authorization by you, where: required by law; required for public purposes; required by law to report child abuse; required by a health oversight agency for oversight activities authorized by law, such as Department of Health, Office of Professional Discipline of Offices of Professional Medical Conduct; required by law in judicial or administrative proceedings; required by law enforcement purposes by a law enforcement official; required by a coroner or medical examiner; permitted by law to a funeral director; permitted by law for organ donation purposes; permitted by law to avert a serious threat to health or safety; permitted by law and required by military authorities if you are a member of the armed forces of the United States.

We may use and disclose your PHI in response to a court or administrative order, if you are involved in a lawsuit or similar proceeding. We may also disclose your PHI in response to a discovery request, subpoena, or other lawful process by another party involved in the dispute.

We may use or disclose your PHI for worker's compensation, no fault and similar programs.

We may use a sign-in sheet at the front desk and we may call you in to see the doctor by name.

We may contact you by mail or phone, at your residence, to remind you of appointments or to provide information about treatment alternatives. Unless you instruct us otherwise, we may mail you a postcard reminding you to make an appointment and we may leave a message for you on any answering device or with any person who answers the phone at your residence.

You can make a reasonable request for us to use alternative methods of communicating with you in a confidential manner. These requests must be submitted in writing in a clear and concise fashion. We are not required to agree to your request; however, if we do agree, we are bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies or when information is necessary to treat you.

Rights that you have:

You have the right to request restrictions on some of the uses or disclosures described above. Except as stated we are not required to agree to such restrictions.

You have the right to inspect and obtain copies of your medical information (a fee for the costs of copying, labor and supplies associated with your request will be charged).

You have the right to request amendments to your medical information. Such requests must be in writing, and must state the reason for the requested amendment. We will notify you as to whether we agree or disagree with the requested amendment. If we disagree with any requested amendment, we will further notify you of your rights.

You have the right to request an accounting of any disclosure we make of your medical information except for: disclosures we make to you, or to carry out treatment, payment or healthcare operations, or as requested by your written authorization, or as permitted or required under 45 CFR 164.502, or for emergency or notification purposes, or for national security or intelligence purposes as permitted by law, or to correctional facilities or law enforcement officials as permitted by law.

You have the right to receive a paper copy of this notice. To obtain a paper copy of this notice please contact Deborah Lynch.

You have the right to file a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. You may file a complaint with our practice or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. All complaints must be submitted in writing and addressed to Deborah Lynch at the above address. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

This privacy policy is subject to change as circumstances dictate. Any changes will be effective upon the release of a revised privacy policy, which will be made available to patients upon request. Please sign and date below acknowledging that you have read this policy and that you consent to the terms of our privacy policy as stated in this notice.

You may choose up to 2 people (such as relative, friend, or attorney) to share your medical information with. Any changes to this will need to be in writing.
